

Artist: Dries Tessens
Title: Hypnotic Story

Release Date: 14th May 2012
Release ID: CW042x

“Extreme quality” is the best definition for this work. On the one hand it could be deemed as a double A side because both tracks are so good but “Long Time No Sleep” does have that deeper edge that will make it appeal to B side fanatics. “Hypnotic Story” was the result of a late night production session and it really lives up to its name as the whole essence of the track seems to just draw you in. While “Long Time No Sleep” is an expression of the “after party” atmosphere, it finds its inspiration in that morning after vibe which only clubbers will understand, the intensity, the depth, the highs and the lows. Listening to music that of this quality is a great pleasure and if you have found these tracks then you have found a good thing.

What will strike you about this work is the clarity in which each element is presented and then how working together as a whole a full image and picture is created. It is impossible to stop yourself from being drawn into the hypnotic thread that culminates in a double drop, consisting firstly of the kick drum and then a kick bass combo that is just sure to get the sleepest of dance floor shaking some booty!

Long Time No Sleep ▶

This one is an altogether more complex number that among other things really exemplifies Dries' structural composition talents. Total domination is advanced in the intro by the buzzing midrange hornet bass but it doesn't stop there and nor should it! Dries offers some temporary relief in the breakdown with ethereal strings and dreamy melodies before all that has come before returns together with the additional of an intricate and zesty pad sequence. Magnificent.
