Title: Nibiru EP Remixes

Release Date: 18th March 2013
Release ID: CW065x

The Nibiru EP Remixes are a rich and diverse collection of sounds that have echoes from the last 20 years of dance music as well as some sign posts about the future. First off Akkya just simply goes to work on the originals and ratchets up the intensity to produce 3 tracks that can be best described as rock steady DJ tools that are more than capable of turning the screw in any beat driven DJ set. The Tuomas Rantanen duo of remixes are of a completely different ilk and both see Rantanen experimenting with slightly slower BPMs and funky fresh texturisation techniques. Xilinox also opts for a slower BPM and the focus here is definitely on innovation rather than banging beats. Patrex gives us a house injected tech beauty, Danijel gets all low mid bleepy, Daz pushes the envelope (as usual) and Ross goes for minimal thump.

Nibiru (Akkya Remix) ▶

Akkya works in the original elements and then turns the pressure gauge up to maximum!

Nibiru (Danijel Vasiljevic Remix) ▶

In this hats driven number Danijel makes top use of the originals low mid bleeps to create a rock steady remix.

Nibiru (Tuomas Rantanen Remix) ▶

A journey of dense beats, tense pulses and cavernous percussive scratchiness. Play with distortion.

Nibiru (Xilinox Remix) ▶

Xilinox loops up a lovely blend from the original bleeps and lays down a complex and compelling journey piece.

Time and Light (Daz Furey Remix) ▶

A careful balance of tech, bass, acid and beat give this remix from Daz a fresh and tough feel. Genre unboxable.

Time and Light (Ross Harper Remix) ▶

Thump Thump, Time Light. Edgy minimalness exhibiting deep bass drums and subtle shades of light in time.

Twisted Moon (Akkya's Why We Haven't Been Back Remix) ▶

A real solid beat bass workout from Akkya. This is a tough DJ tool that is just screaming to be looped up and laid down.

Twisted Moon (Tuomas Rantanen Remix) ▶

A complex mash of beat, bass growl and pointed percussions. This style adds yet more depth to Rantanen's vast catalogue.

Shock Therapy (Akkya Remix) ▶

Akkya takes it down again with another driving bass and beat monster. Just throw this in the mix and see what happens!

Shock Therapy (Patrex Remix) ▶

A smooth and classy house infected tech track that gently undulates through a variety of musically adept audio scenes.
