

Artist: Michael Lambart
Title: In Your Head EP Remixes

Release Date: 12th August 2013
Release ID: CW075x

Michael Lambart's banging EP gets a makeover from some City Wall producers of new and old. Whereas the originals are basically straight down the line club techno, this lot provide a much more eclectic bag. Michael Lambart's samples provided a varied palette of sound for the remixers to go to work with, most notably the strong synth pulse of In Your Head and the gritty distorted grooves of Sharp Waves. So TWIST3D and Nelman both keep things close to the originals and provide a couple of absolute bangers. While if you're after gritty, hard edged techno then look no further than the Smophor and Dorian Gray reworks. Furthermore, if you want something a little more alternative then be sure to reach for the Tuomas Rantanen, Patrex or Danijel Vasiljevic remixes. All in all a fine cross-section of sound.

In Your Head (Smophor Remix) ▶

Smophor presents a real nice and tight techno number that revolves around the neat vocal snippet.

In Your Head (TWIST3D Remix) ▶

This one stays close to the original but gives a little extra swagger and stomp.

In Your Head (Tuomas Rantanen Remix) ▶

Tuomas Rantanen takes things to a different vibe with this reflective journey piece.

In Your Head (Danijel Vasiljevic Remix) ▶

Hard distorted beats and bass rudely accompanied by shredded SFX, all amid echoes of the original pulse.

Therion (Patrex Remix) ▶

As usual Patrex's work here is ultra-deep and uniquely thought through, progressive tech at its best.

Sharp Waves (Nelman Remix) ▶

Nelman takes no prisoners in this thumping, screaming belter. Hold on tight!

Sharp Waves (Dorian Gray Remix) ▶

An acid squelch breakdown and bass heavy beat mean this one has dancefloor written all over it.

Sharp Waves (Tuomas Rantanen Remix) ▶

A really fine tapestry that weaves alternative beats with a variety of smoky burnt textures.
